Be a Part of the Horsing Around Movement, our goal is to bring excitement to the track by educating the public about all the many wonderful things horses are doing these days. You can list your business as a supporter of this effort for $100.

We will put your logo with a hyperlink to your website or social media of your choice on the Horsing Around page so all can see you support the horse industry.

Horsing Around is brought to you by the OHHA and WDLR Radio. It is a 30-minute radio/podcast that airs Saturday mornings from 9:00-9:30 AM. It is live streamed on wdlrradio.com and airs on WDLR local radio in Delaware and surrounding counties in Ohio on 92.9 FM and 1550 AM.

Plus, smart phone users can find WDLR Radio on the TuneIn App(Android/iOS) and listen from wherever are on the job, out in the barn or at the track.

Little Brown Jug Network Race Host Kelley Bell and Michelle Gatchell interview horse owners, breeders, trainers, drivers and lovers about the many ways humans and horses interact. Listeners learn about careers in the horse industry and about programs that horses are involved with to help humans and ones where humans help horses. So what are you waiting for, sign-up to Horse Around with the Horsing Around podcast and radio show now.
